Corpus Christi College is the sixth oldest college in the University of Cambridge. Founded in 1352 by the Guilds of Corpus Christi and the Blessed Virgin Mary, it bears the distinction of being the only College in Oxford or Cambridge founded by their citizens. The College has a 650-year commitment to teaching and research, carried out on the site of its original foundation in the heart of mediaeval Cambridge. It provides an academic and residential environment for approximately 60 Fellows and c550 students (300 undergraduates and 250 post-graduates), and currently employs approximately 120 staff. The main site is located in central Cambridge. Other accommodation is provided in five main satellites, including the extensive complex at Leckhampton in Grange Road, which provides accommodation for both students and Research and Visiting Fellows. The College’s Parker Library houses a collection of manuscripts of world-historical significance. The Library is named after a former Master, Archbishop Matthew Parker.

The college is looking to recruit a Conference and Catering Coordinator to join the Conference and Catering Departments. The purpose of the role is to support the Conference and Events Manager, who will be the line manager, as well as the Senior Catering and Events Coordinator to ensure a symbiotic approach to managing external and internal events in an academic venue. The role will be split equally between the Conference and Catering Departments; however, this will vary depending on business levels and calendar.

The Conference and Catering Coordinator is in the fortunate position to work with and interact with all departments across the college and with many Fellows and students. Working closely with all operational teams but particularly with Catering and Housekeeping, this role is varied and interesting.
