Corpus Christi College

College Butler/ Food Services Manager

Additional Information

Corpus Christi College is the sixth oldest college in the University of Cambridge. Founded in 1352 by the Guilds of Corpus Christi and the Blessed Virgin Mary, it bears the distinction of being the only College in Oxford or Cambridge founded by their citizens. The College has a 650-year commitment to teaching and research, carried out on the site of its original foundation in the heart of mediaeval Cambridge. It provides an academic and residential environment for approximately 60 Fellows and c550 students (300 undergraduates and 250 post-graduates), and currently employs approximately 120 staff. The main site is located in central Cambridge. Other accommodation is provided in five main satellites, including the extensive complex at Leckhampton in Grange Road, which provides accommodation for both students and Research and Visiting Fellows. The College’s Parker Library houses a collection of manuscripts of world-historical significance. The Library is names after a former Master, Archbishop Matthew Parker.

The Catering department, and the Pantry team within it, plays a key role within College life. Whether its day to day student Cafeteria dining, College feasts or Congregation, the College Butler and their team are at the heart of events. With a varied role, the College Butler must inspire the team around them and strive to achieve the highest of standards whilst maintaining a friendly yet professional disposition across daily operations.
