Additional Information

Corpus Christi College is the sixth oldest college in the University of Cambridge. Founded in 1352 by the Guilds of Corpus Christi and the Blessed Virgin Mary, it bears the distinction of being the only College in Oxford or Cambridge founded by their citizens. The College has a 650-year commitment to teaching and research, carried out on the site of its original foundation in the heart of mediaeval Cambridge. It provides an academic and residential environment for approximately 60 Fellows and c550 students (300 undergraduates and 250 post-graduates), and currently employs approximately 120 staff. The main site is located in central Cambridge. Other accommodation is provided in five main satellites, including the extensive complex at Leckhampton in Grange Road, which provides accommodation for both students and Research and Visiting Fellows. The College’s Parker Library houses a collection of manuscripts of world-historical significance. The Library is named after a former Master, Archbishop Matthew Parker.

The Catering Department, and the Kitchen Team within it, serves a vital role within Corpus Christi College providing catering in a wide variety of settings. The kitchen team provide around 500 meals a day mixed between Cafeteria, High Table, Formal Halls, Master Lodge dining and private events for external clients. This variety necessitates creativity and the opportunity to create multiple styles of dishes using exceptional ingredients. This is a fantastic opportunity to be part of a kitchen team that believes in sustainable eating, utilizing every part of an ingredient, ‘from scratch cooking’ across all sections and seasonal cooking.
