Additional Information

Corpus Christi College is the sixth oldest college in the University of Cambridge. Founded in 1352 by the Guilds of Corpus Christi and the Blessed Virgin Mary, it bears the distinction of being the only College in Oxford or Cambridge founded by their citizens. The College has a 650-year commitment to teaching and research, carried out on the site of its original foundation in the heart of medieval Cambridge. It provides an academic and residential environment for approximately 60 Fellows and c550 students (300 undergraduates and 250 post-graduates), and currently employs approximately 120 staff. The main site is located in central Cambridge. Other accommodation is provided in five main satellites, including the extensive complex at Leckhampton in Grange Road, which provides accommodation for both students and Research and Visiting Fellows. The College’s Parker Library houses a collection of manuscripts of world-historical significance. The Library is named after a former Master, Archbishop Matthew Parker.

Corpus Christi College has a strong reputation for its food, service and the care taken to deliver and exceed our customers’ expectations. The Fellows wine cellar along with the Butlers wine cellar plays a key role in the Colleges’ hospitality, both internally and for external commercial operations. The Cellar person will be intrinsic in working alongside the pantry team in preparations for these events, ensuring adequate refreshments are selected and available when needed while ensuring accurate record keeping and security at all times.
