McCrum Lecture Theatre

Named after a former Master of Corpus, Michael McCrum, and opened on 14th November 1995 by HRH The Duke of Gloucester, this WiFi-enabled venue nestles alongside “The Eagle” public house, just off Bene’t Street. In addition to an auditorium with 150 tiered seats and in-built audio-visual equipment, it also contains a refreshments area and a spacious foyer, which can accommodate small exhibitions.

Facilities include:

- Rear projection and blackout screen
- PA system with lectern
- Fold-away writing desks attached to each seat
- Flipcharts and whiteboard
- Induction loop system
- Disabled access to the auditorium

Stage dimensions: 25 m²
Maximum capacity: Theatre—150

Ideal for lectures, Q&A sessions, panel discussions, presentations and large conferences

Catering options available

In-built audio-visual equipment conferences@corpus.cam.ac.uk