A photograph of Corpus Christi College in Cambridge, featuring a large Gothic-style building with a central tower and a large window, set against a blue sky with clouds. The building is made of light-colored stone and has several tall, thin spires. In front of the building is a large, well-maintained lawn with a striped pattern. The text "Corpus Christi College" is written in a large, elegant, cursive font, and "Meetings and Events" is written in a smaller, blue, sans-serif font below it.
